February 11, 2012

Mayor Willard Rodarmel
119 Fox Street
Lemoore, CA 93245

Dear Mayor Rodarmel:

The Sonoma County Water Agency and Applied Solutions is proud to host The Growing Sustainable Communities Conference in Sonoma County, California on May 2 - 3, 2012. With our partners, Climate Communities and Sustainable City Network, we are organizing a one-day educational opportunity on May 3, 2012 for municipal professionals and elected officials at the Double Tree Hotel in Rohnert Park, California. The conference will be preceded by a special, half-day legislative roundtable for top leadership, and a networking reception for all conference and roundtable attendees at the St. Francis Winery & Vineyards in Santa Rosa, California.

This conference will educate leaders and staff from all over the region on the latest sustainability ideas, plans and best practices in four distinct programming tracks: Water, Energy, Transportation and Resource Management. Attendees will include mayors, council members, city/county managers, planners, engineers, departmental directors and local government staff, as well as state/federal elected officials.
