(e) Motion to Adjourn. (not debatable) A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, except as follows:

While a vote is being taken.

(f) Motion to Fix Hour of Adjournment. Such a motion shall be to set a definite time at which to adjourn and shall be debatable and shall be amendable by unanimous vote.

(g) Motion to Table. A motion to table shall be used to temporarily by-pass the subject. A motion to table shall be undebatable and shall preclude all amendments or debate of the subject under consideration. If the motion shall prevail, the matter may be "taken 'from the table'" at any time prior to the end of the next regular meeting.

(h) Motion to Limit or Terminate Discussion. Such a motion shall be used to limit or close debate on, or further amendment to, the main motion and shall be undebatable. If the motion fails, debate shall be reopened; if the motion passes, a vote shall be taken on the main motion.

(i) Motion to Amend. A motion to amend shall be discussed only as to the amendment. A motion to amend an amendment is possible but no additional motions to further amendments may be made. Any amendment shall relate to the original motion and not introduce a different matter. Amendments shall be voted first, then the main motion as amended. Alternatively, the original maker of the main motion may agree to revise the original motion and if the second agrees to second the revised motion, the Oversight Board may vote on the main motion as revised.

Section 9. Voting Procedure

(a) Voting Procedure. In acting upon every motion, the vote shall be taken by roll call. The vote on each motion shall then be entered in full upon the record. (c) Reconsideration. Any board member who voted with the majority may move a reconsideration of any action at the same meeting. If the motion to reconsider passes, then the original item may be reconsidered at that time or be agendized for the next meeting which meets any applicable noticing requirements. After a motion for reconsideration has once been acted upon, no other motion for reconsideration thereof shall be made without unanimous consent of the Oversight Board.

Section 9. Resolutions

(a) Definitions. The Actions of the Oversight Board will take one of three forms: "resolution," "minute order," and "motion" (thereafter recorded by minute entry). Resolutions, in addition to being referenced in the minutes, .will be recorded by a separate document, numbered in sequence and preserved in a separate set of books. Such "resolutions" are used for various reasons, such as when specifically required by law, when needed as a separate evidentiary document to be transmitted to another governmental agency, or where the frequency of future reference back to its contents warrants a separate document (with the additional "whereas" explanatory material it often recites) to facilitate such future reference and research. A "minute order" as used locally denotes an Oversight Board action which is recorded simply by an item entry in the minutes of the meeting at which it was accomplished, and no separate document is made to memorialize it. However, sequential numbering shall be assigned to each motion to facilitate indexing.

(b) Resolutions Prepared In Advance. Where a resolution has been prepared in advance, the procedure shall be: motion, second, discussion, vote pursuant to methods prescribed above, and result declared. It shall not be necessary to read a resolution in full or by title except to identify it. Any member may require that the resolution be read in full.

(c) Resolutions Not Prepared In Advance. Where a resolution has not been prepared in advance, the procedure shall be to instruct the Executive Director of the Successor Agency to prepare a resolution for presentation at the next Oversight Board meeting.

(d) Urgency Resolutions. On matters of urgency, a resolution may be presented verbally in motion form together with instructions for written preparation for later execution. After the resolution has been verbally stated, the voting procedure described above shall be followed.
