PRESS RELEASE

On September 6, 2015 at approximately 3:23AM, the Lemoore Police Department responded to the 800 block of E. Hanford Armona Rd. regarding a male who had just been attacked by three unknown Hispanic males.

When officers arrived on scene they located a 30 year old, male, victim with an injury to his face. The male had been asleep in his vehicle when three Hispanic male adults began attacking him. One of the suspect's began punching him in the face while another hit him with a blunt object. The suspects demanded that the victim give them his personal property which he did. The suspects then fled the scene in a newer model, black, SUV. The suspects were described as being 18 to 21 years old. One suspect was wearing a black shirt, one suspect was wearing a red hat, and one suspect was wearing a black shirt with some kind of design on the front of the shirt.

On Monday, September 7, 2015 at approximately 3:45 a.m. Lemoore Police received a call in the 200 block of E. Hanford Armona Rd. in Lemoore. The reporting party advised he was arriving home when he was confronted by two HMA's. One of the males approached the reporting party while a second HMA walked towards him. The reporting party figured something bad was going to happen so he took off running. Lemoore PD officer responded to the area and attempted to make contact with both HMA. The HMA's took off running. The officer was able to apprehend one of the subjects who was later identified as Noe Aguilar (age 26 of Lemoore).

During Lemoore Police investigation the victim from the attack the night before (09/06/2015) was contacted and positively identified Noe Aguilar as the one who threatened to kill him if he did not give him everything he had. Noe Aguilar was arrested and booked at Kings County Jail for terrorist threats, attempted robbery, obstructing and delaying a police officer, and drunk in public.

Anyone with any further information regarding this attack is urged to call the Lemoore Police Department at (559) 924-5333.
