

LEMOORE POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

On 5/17/16 at about 0912 hours, Lemoore Police Officers were dispatched to the area of E. Bush St. and Locust St. regarding two males that were looking into vehicles. Officers arrived on scene and found subjects matching the description in the 300 block on Walnut St. which is near the area of the original call for service. The first officer on scene contacted a male identified as Ignacio Garcia (DOB: 11/22/69) along with an additional male and female. Garcia attempted to flee into a residence. The officer followed and detained the suspect. Garcia began to resist the officer and a struggle ensued. During the struggle Garcia threw a small amount of methamphetamine along with meth smoking pipes in an attempt to hide the contraband.

Officers were able to subdue Garcia without anyone being injured. A second male that was seen looking into vehicles jumped the back yard fence of the residence on Walnut St. and began to leave the scene through the alley way. Officers were in the process of setting up a perimeter on the scene and found the male. He was identified as Braxton Jackson (DOB: 6/12/95). Jackson was detained and later arrested. The female that was with Garcia in the 300 block of Walnut St. was identified as Bernadette Faubion (DOB: 11/12/67). Faubion was found to be in possession of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia. All three subjects were on probation out of Kings County.

Ignacio Garcia was arrested for resisting and obstructing a police officer, possession of methamphetamine, possession of drug paraphernalia, and a violation of probation.

Braxton Jackson was arrested for being in violation of his probation.

Bernadette Faubion was arrested for being in possession of methamphetamine, being in possession of drug paraphernalia, and for being in violation of probation.
