PRESS RELEASE

On 4/1/2016 at about 8:18 PM, the Lemoore Police Department, the Lemoore Volunteer Fire Department, and the Kings County Fire Department were dispatched to an apartment fire in the 1100 block of W. Bush St. with someone still inside of the apartment. Units from all departments arrived within minutes of being dispatched.

A downstairs apartment was completely engulfed in flames and the fire was spreading to the second floor apartments. Police Officers and Firefighters began to check apartments near the fire for people that could be trapped. Lemoore and Kings County Firefighters found a man trapped inside of his apartment on the second floor. The man was carried out of the apartment by Firefighters. He was transported to the hospital by EMS for possible smoke inhalation. No other injuries have been reported as a result of this incident. The fire was contained and extinguished before it could spread further than the two apartments.
