

LEMOORE POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

On June 6th, 2016 at approximately 1:30 pm the Lemoore Police Department Problem Orientated Policing team conducted an undercover operation within the City of Lemoore. The purpose of the operation was to conduct compliance checks on local massage parlors and investigate for any illegal activity. Sakura Day Spa, located at 344 W. D St., was one of the mentioned businesses.

During the investigation, an undercover officer was propositioned to trade money for sexual acts to be performed on him. This lead to the arrest of 2 females located at the establishment. The two females have been identified as Jianqin Wang, 48 years old, from Pasadena, CA. and Li Xiau-Gunn, 43 years old, from the Los Angeles area.

A search warrant was authored and severed on the business. Several items were seized to include financial records and electronic devices. Both women were arrested and booked into the Kings County Jail on charges of PC 647(b) prostitution, PC 266h(a) pandering, and PC 182(a)(1) conspiracy.
