Press Release

On October 25th, 2021 at approximately 1209 AM, Lemoore Police Officers were dispatched to the 600 block of E. Deodar Ln. for a possible domestic violence incident. Officers arrived on scene minutes later but the victim had left the scene. The victim was contacted by phone but did not cooperate with the responding officers.

On October 25th, 2021 at approximately 4:18 PM the Hanford Police Department responded to a suspicious death in the City of Hanford. An autopsy was conducted days later and the death was ruled a homicide. It is believed that the victim's death was related to the domestic violence incident that occurred days earlier in Lemoore. This investigation was then taken over by the Lemoore Police Department Investigations Division.

Detectives conducted several interviews with witnesses and the suspect. The autopsy and other evidence showed that the victim died from wounds sustained from the physical altercation with her husband on October 25th, 2021. The victim's husband was identified as Jesse Corrales (44yo). Corrales was placed under arrest on November 23rd, 2021 at 4:50 PM and booked into the Kings County Jail for PC 187 (Murder) and PC 273.5 (a) (Domestic Violence).

This incident is still under investigation. Anyone with information is encouraged to call Lemoore Police Department Detectives at 559-924-9574.
