

LEMOORE POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

On May 22, 2022 at about 6:52 PM, officers with the Lemoore Police Department were dispatched to the 700 block of N. Lemoore Ave. for a possible shooting. Officers arrived at the location and all involved parties had left the scene. There was evidence at the scene that indicated a shooting had occurred. A short time later, a juvenile victim arrived at Adventist Medical Center with gunshot wounds. He was later transported to Fresno Regional Medical Center for further treatment.

Detectives with the Lemoore Police Department responded to the scene and are currently conducting an investigation. Three juveniles were arrested and booked at the Kings County Juvenile Center. One juvenile was arrested for the charges of attempted murder, possession of an un-serialized/unregistered firearm, and participation in a criminal street gang. The other two juveniles were arrested for accessory after the fact. The investigation is on-going.
