Proposed Motion:

Information Only.

We're excited to announce the upcoming Flag Football season at our Recreation Center and are actively seeking ways to increase participation. If you're interested in helping promote the program—whether through outreach, marketing assistance, or other advertising strategies—we would greatly appreciate your support.

Additionally, we have recently established a new Program Instructor position to enhance our offerings. We invite your recommendations and feedback on the types of programs or activities you believe would be valuable additions to our recreation schedule.

Thank you in advance for your insights and support as we work to deliver a robust, engaging experience for our community.
